

Dave

Reed

State Representative 62nd Legislative District

Dave Reed is serving his fourth term in the Pennsylvania House of Representatives after defeating a 12-year incumbent in the state's 62nd Legislative District.

Born on March 6, 1978, Dave represents the sixth generation of his family to reside in Indiana County. While growing up in Homer City, Dave was raised to believe that, with enough hard work, anything is possible. It is with this same attitude that Dave fights for the citizens of the 62nd District in Harrisburg.

Before graduating from the Robert E. Cook Honors College at Indiana University of Pennsylvania \(IUP\) with a bachelor's degree in mathematics/economics, Dave graduated from Homer-Center High School, where he was on the baseball and football teams.

During his undergraduate years, Dave continued his high achievement as a student and as an athlete. As a javelin thrower for the IUP Track & Field Team, Dave was named a Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference Scholar Athlete.

From his first job as a strawberry picker at Reeger's Vegetable Farm to his time spent as an intern for Governor Tom Ridge's Policy Office for Community and Economic Development, Dave has consistently demonstrated his strong work ethic.

Dave's graduate studies at the University of Pennsylvania, where he received a Master's of Governmental Administration Degree, focused on effective and efficient government.

During his tenure in the House of Representatives, Dave has remained focused on the core governing principles of fiscal responsibility, energy independence and providing our families the opportunity to be financially secure.

A strong believer in the need to balance our economic necessities with our environmental responsibilities, Dave has been a constant supporter of environmental stewardship and commonsense policies that protect our natural heritage for future generations.

With his personal and educational experiences leading the way, Dave has taken the lead on legislation aimed at spurring economic growth and creating jobs in Pennsylvania. As one of the original sponsors of the Keystone Manufacturing Initiative \(KMI\), Dave has recognized the need to move legislation forward that ensures our working families can continue to prosper in the years ahead.

Dave currently serves on the Environmental Resources and Energy, Consumer Affairs, Finance and Appropriations committees and as the Republican chairman of the Subcommittee on Fiscal Policy. He also serves as co-chair of the House Republican Policy Committee Energy Task Force.

Dave, his wife, Heather, their son, Joshua, and their daughter, Gracie, live in White Township. The Reeds are members of Grace United Methodist Church and participate in numerous civic and community organizations.
